Strategies Group and Sage are Hitting the Road and Bringing Sage Timberline Enterprise to a City near You

A completely Integrated Business Solution for Service and Specialty contractors

Atlanta, Ga., June 28, 2010 – Strategies Group Inc. announced today that effectively immediately they are partnering with Sage and embarking on a road show to bring live demonstrations of the all new Sage Timberline Enterprise to multiple cities throughout the southeast including Atlanta GA., Birmingham AL., Nashville TN. and Jackson MS. The highly anticipated Sage Timberline Enterprise software provides everything service and specialty contracting businesses need including accounting, service management, estimating, and job management tasks with just one touch.

“We are excited to be one of the first Sage Preferred Partners to show Sage Timberline Enterprise live to prospective clients. It is cutting edge technology and we believe the service and specialty contractors out there will be very impressed with its ease of use and level of functionality.” says Craig Trussell Strategies Group VP of Sales and Marketing. “These are still tough times for the construction industry. Clients making technology investments want products that will help them in every aspect of their business and of course that will help them win more work. Strategies Group believes Sage Timberline Enterprise is this type of technology.”
